LANA Agenda – October 29, 2022 at 10 am – Location: Everybody's Coffee

1. Intros – welcome to any new LANA members!
2. Construction Updates in and near our boundaries:
 - a. the alley between Lawrence and Lakeside Place is being re-done into a green alley. The work is mostly done now! It will be interesting to see how it is in the rain and snow. To learn more about what a green alley is:

 - b. the park between LANA and DuSable Lakeshore Drive is being converted into a nature area. Fencing is up and the grass has been killed. For more info:
<https://www.chicagoparkdistrict.com/about-us/news/construction-new-uptown-natural-area-begin-september-9>
 - c. the expansion land at Weiss has had construction begin on the controversial apartment building. Please use caution when navigating the corner of Wilson and Clarendon since the barriers have made pedestrian and vehicular traffic dangerous.
 - d. the construction at Heiwa Terrace, 920 W Lawrence Ave is almost complete and the new wooden fence has been installed around their beautiful garden.
3. The owners of Weiss Memorial Hospital (Pipeline) have filed for bankruptcy, as the sale to Resilience Healthcare has not gone through.
 - a. The main concern is that despite the proceeds from the sale of the expansion land, the hospital's future is still in limbo.
 - b. Many of you may recall from the meetings with the hospital owners (Pipeline) and the developers (Lincoln Properties), that the sale of the expansion land was how they planned to keep the hospital afloat.
 - c. Here are two articles with more info about the bankruptcy of Weiss/West Suburban:
